Dear Bobby:

I have just learned with a great deal of pleasure of your appointment to the Board of Executive Directors of the Inter-American Development Bank.

The Bank is to be congratulated on obtaining your services and, if there is anything that we can do for you, please let me know. Perhaps the next time you are in Washington we can get together for a good talk.

With my best wishes.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

Dear Bobby:

Neither my Latin nor my mastery of poetry permits me adequately to reply to your note of September 28. I shall treasure it first and foremost among the notes I have been receiving on my forthcoming demise from public office.

I learned much from you during the days of our work together. I hope we meet often in the future.

Faithfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
